Triangle Food Tours, Inc. becomes Triangle Food & City Tours, Inc.

RALEIGH, N.C., July 14, 2023— After 15 years of elevating palates in the Triangle cities, North Carolina, Triangle Food Tours, Inc. is rebranding to Triangle Food & City Tours officially launching on April 15, 2023. While still offering weekly public and private food tours, Triangle Food & City Tours will also offer various guide-led downtown city walking tours.

Triangle Food Tours, Inc., the first food tour company established in Raleigh, has been leading public and private food tours in the Triangle since 2008. With the success of their food tour business, Triangle Food Tours, Inc. has decided to expand in order to incorporate new ventures. Owner Jacquelyn Manson said, “In addition to our food tours, we have been leading city walking tours, haunted tours, scavenger hunts, and step-on-guide services in the Triangle for years, we are just making it official now. The Triangle is growing and I want to offer more fun adventures, more ways for families, friends, and businesses to explore the unique history of Raleigh and Durham and surrounding Triangle towns. We want to spice things up!”

We will now be offering a private guide-led walking tour of the Historic Oakwood neighborhood. This 2-hour walking tour will focus on the architecture, development, and notable families of the neighborhood and Raleigh. Two additional walking tours will explore the diverse historical figures who contributed to the development of Raleigh and historical events that have taken place on and around Fayetteville Street and a private Raleigh African-American walking history tour of Fayetteville St.

In the fall, for private groups, a guide-led murder mystery tour in Raleigh and a scavenger hunt of downtown Raleigh or Durham have been added to the list of offerings. Both will feature real historical figures from these cities. Visitors must use clues collected along the way to solve the mysteries and participants will work as a team to solve clues.

Guests can sign up for any of these offerings by going to www.trianglefoodandcitytours.com or contacting Triangle Food & City Tours by phone at (919) 623-4873 or email at trianglefoodtours@gmail.com or tourwith@trianglefoodandcitytours.com .
